Juan Maldonado
Cyber-security Professional
Sultan, WA | 425-320-7100
www.linkedin.com/in/juan-maldonado-daniel | github.com/Juan-bit94

Cyber-security professional with a proven track record in threat detection, incident response, and network security. Additionally, I server as a signals intelligence voice interceptor with a TS/SCI clearance for the Washington national guard with proficiency in safeguarding critical systems and data.

TECHNICAL SKILLS
Languages: python, bash, java, PowerShell
Skills and Tools: GitHub, Virtual-box, Wireshark, Nmap, Windows Active Directory.

PROJECTS

Managed Service Provider, Nov 2023 - https://github.com/CF201Group2
- Prepared demonstrations on how we will meet clients IT requirements.
- Built IT support from scratch for a small company consisting of 5 - 20 people.
- Provided user provisioning and backup solution through script automation.

EDUCATION

Code Fellows - Seattle, WA
Cybersecurity and Operations course (in process) - 2024

Cascadia College - Bothell, WA
Certificate - CompTIA Network+ and CompTIA Security+ - 2023

Cascadia College - Bothell, WA
Degree - Associate in Integrated Studies - 2020

EXPERIENCE

Washington State National Guard, Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Signals Intelligence Voice Interceptor, Apr 2021 – Present
- Managed and maintained vital signals equipment for intelligence operations, ensuring their optimal functionality.
- Processed, categorized, reanslated and summarized over 1,000 foreign language communications.
- Developed proficiency in intelligence analysis, enabling me to deliver impactful briefings and promptly disseminate mission-critical data to the appropriate stakeholders.

Codefellows, Seattle WA, Cybersecurity and Operations student, Oct 2023 – Present
- Completed complex cyber-security projects, showcasing my practical skills in vulnerability assessment and threat mitigation.
- Adept with tools for networking, configuration, and security.